RIVER APPROPRIATION.

One Congressman Secures a Large Sum for Green river, but Half a Dozen Could not get a Dollar for the Kentucky.

The wires from Washington City this week state that Representative Ellis, by his watchful regard for the interest of his constituency, succeeded, during the closing hours of Congress, on March 3d, in having an appropriation of $65,000 for the rebuilding of Runsey Lock, in Green river, inserted by the Senate in the Deficiency bill. He remained up all that night and had the good fortune to see President Harrison sign the bill on the morning of the 4th. Now the average citizen in this part of the State and along the Kentucky river, on reading about the success of Congressman Ellis and thinking about the vast resources in iron, coal, timber, clays and building stones, to be carried to the markets of the whole Ohio and Mississippi valley by the completion of the navigation of the Kentucky river, is moved to remark that one such an earnest and industrious worker in Congress in the interest of the people is worth a whole colony of Representatives who spend their time in Washington City in making or pretending to make speeches prepared with an eye singly to the popular applause. Less talk and more work in Congress by the Kentucky delegation would have secured such appropriations in the past ten years for this river as would have completed the improvements to navigation more than two years ago. There is no excuse whatever for Kentucky, the second largest revenue paying State in the Union, failing to obtain ample appropriations for uninterrupted and speedy work on all of her rivers under the control of the General Government, and if anything were necessary to prove this, the recent achievement of Representative Ellis for Green river, a river in which not one-twentieth of the returns for the money appropriated as compared with the Kentucky river, would be sufficient to fix the blame where it justly belongs.

Heart Disease Curable.

The truth of this statement may be doubted by many, but when Dr. Franklin Miller, the eminent Indiana specialist, claims that heart disease is curable and proves it by thousands of testimonials of wonderful cures by his new heart cure, it attracts the attention of the millions suffering with short breath, palpitation, irregular pulse, wind in stomach, pain in side or shoulder, smothering spells, fainting, dropsy, &c. A. F. Davis, Silver Creek, Nebraska, by using four bottles of Dr. Miller's New Heart Cure, was completely cured after twelve years suffering from heart disease. This wonderful remedy is sold by J. W. Gayle. Books free. 5

"The Golden Bottle."

The above is the name of the latest work of the Hon. Ignatius Donnelly, which the ROUNDABOUT is offering to its readers for half the retail price as a premium for prompt payment of subscriptions. We have read the book during the past week, and found it intensely interesting. In fact it is one of the books which, when once begun, you can scarcely leave until finished.

The plot is one of the most fantastic which the mind of mortal ever conceived, and is a fit companion to "Looking Backward," but it lacks the dryness which renders that work rather dull to the ordinary reader. Its principal object is to inculcate the ideas and doctrines of the Farmers Alliance, but it contains, notwithstanding, standing, many valuable thoughts, much satire upon the follies of men. Its close shows that the author is not a fanatic upon the subject and gives good reason for reflection upon many plans to alleviate the sufferings of the laboring classes, "not the least of which is for the laboring classes to relieve themselves by doing less dreaming on what might be and devoting more attention to what is.

THE COUNTY SUPERVISORS

Begin Their Examination of the Assessments For This Year.

On Monday, as the law requires, the county board of tax supervisors, composed of M. H. P. Williams, sr., John S. Harrod, W. J. Lewis, B. F. Jones, John C. Bridges, Lewis A. Harrod and W. G. Armstrong, met at the court-house and after being sworn into office entered upon their duties of hearing and determining complaints of irregularities or inequalities in the county and State assessment that may be brought to their attention by the tax payers.

The law says that they "shall make a careful examination of the assessor's books, and each individual list thereof, and may increase or decrease any list; but the board shall not reduce or raise any assessment unless the evidence be clear and unmistakable that the valuation is not a fair cash value, and shall list all property omitted by the assessor which may be subject to taxation in the county, and shall correct any errors of the assessors; and, in cases where the property has not been correctly valued, they shall fix the value thereof, and correct the assessor's books, so as to show the true value of the property."

A notice will be sent to all the tax payers whose assessment has been increased or property assessed by the board, and within twenty days from last Monday the work must be completed and the tax books returned to the county clerk, after which as the law provides "there shall be no appeal."

Justly Entitled to It.

Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure is justly entitled to the praise it is receiving. Wherever introduced it has proven itself the most reliable remedy known for the cure of coughs, colds, hoarseness, whooping cough, bronchitis, soreness of the lungs and every kind of a cough from a simple cold to incipient consumption. Purely vegetable. Always reliable and effective. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store.

DR. JOHN P. STEWART.

A Graduate in Medicine and Ready to Begin the Practice.

Among the graduates at the Louisville University of Medicine, the commencement exercise of which will take place in that city at Macauley's Theatre, next Monday, is included John Pugh Stewart, son of Dr. J. Q. A. Stewart, of this city. Superintendent of the Feeble-minded Institute. He passed a most creditable examination and has fairly earned the right to the title of Doctor. His many friends here are proud of his success and hope to see him attain an eminent rank in the profession in which his father is numbered among the distinguished members in the State.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cents. Sold by W. McKee Hardie.

THE ELECTION SATURDAY.

The Official Vote by Precincts and Majority for L. J. Cox for Representative.

There was very little interest taken in the election Saturday for Representative in the place of Hon. E. H. Taylor, jr., resigned. The odds in number of voters in the county, in favor of the Democratic party are too great to make the contest with the Republican party doubtful or exciting enough to bring out anything like a full vote, but the editor of this paper, who was honored with the nomination of the Republican party, finds in a comparison of his vote with the vote of his party at past elections, sufficient ground to believe that he polled proportionately a much larger vote than the party ordinarily receives.

At the election in November, the vote in the city stood 732 Democratic and 697 Republican; in the county, outside the city, 1,444 Democratic and 534 Republican.

The official vote in the election Saturday resulted as follows:

PRECINCTS.	COX.	LEWIS.	CARR.
Vogler's.....	52	99
Bridge.....	101	53
Court-house.....	44
Market-house.....	110	107
Gas-house.....	74	106

Totals..... 432 409

In the county, outside the city, the vote was as follows:

PRECINCTS.	COX.	LEWIS.	CARR.
Crutcher's school.....	30	23	2
Fork's Elkhorn.....	62	11	4
Peak's Mill.....	20	13	4
Tiger.....	27	8	13
Bellepoint.....	41	30
Bald Knob.....	28	11	6
Flat Creek.....	27	4
Bridgeport.....	41	10	6
Cedar Run.....	45	11

Totals..... 321 121 35

RECAPITULATION.

	COX.	LEWIS.	CARR.
City.....	432	409
County.....	321	121	35

Totals..... 753 530 35

Mr. Cox's majority over Mr. Lewis therefore was 23 in the city; 200 in the county and 223 in both city and county.

Under the circumstances, it is gratifying to the editor to feel that he received a special mark of the people's esteem, for which he desires to return his thanks to all his friends who kindly interested themselves in his behalf. It does not derogate in the least, however, from the success of Mr. Cox, who is a gentleman in every way qualified to make the county a splendid Representative. A farmer known to everybody and in close touch with the people; intelligent, well-informed and obedient in the performance of duties confided to him, he merits the confidence and best wishes of all the citizens without regard to party prejudice. He was sworn into the office and took his seat in the House on Thursday.

Sale Next Saturday.

The attention of farmers and millers is called to the sale of Dr. J. M. Suter, deceased. On Saturday next, Dr. Williams will offer at public sale the mill and other property of Mr. Suter, at Swallowfield, this county.

In Memoriam.

GORDON—Sallie Epsey Gordon, aged 8 years, daughter of Mr. Bart and Mrs. M. J. Gordon, of Flag Fork, died November 18, 1892. Her sufferings were great, but she bore them with patience. She was affectionate and obedient at home and school and greatly loved by her parents and her teacher and playmates generally. Oh how her parents miss her presence. She said she was going home to live with her grandma. Her sufferings lasted 10 days. She kissed her father, mother, brother and sister; she asked them to promise to meet her in Heaven. May God bless her sorrowing family and friends. Her funeral took place at her father's residence, near Flag Fork, Ky.

LOCAL.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY—Mrs. Will McEnnis, late Friday evening, was stopped by Innis Clark, colored, as she was passing Gaines' coal office, on Broadway, and while she was momentarily absorbed in study over a question addressed to her by Clark as to where he could find work, he seized her pocket book exposed to view in her cloak pocket, and containing about seven dollars, and made his escape. The alarm was given and the police started in pursuit and succeeded later in capturing Clark and lodged him in jail. It was a bold robbery which should meet a merited punishment. The prisoner was held to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court in April.

PARDON REFUSED—Gov. Brown refused this week so pardon Milton H. Kendall, of Scott county, who is serving a term in the penitentiary for manslaughter. Prominent citizens of Scott county have been pleading with the Governor for this pardon for some time but they have now abandoned hope. Kendall will have to serve his sentence of two years.

A GOOD THING—Mr. Joe Bohannon has invented and applied for a patent for a contrivance in the shape of a hood to place over chimneys or flues which will effectually prevent the wind from blowing down in them and disturbing the draught or scattering the soot over the carpets and furniture.

A GOOD FARM SOLD—Col. John L. Scott, of this city, effected the sale this week of the Bob Crutcher farm of 61 acres in Woodford county, for $3,300, James Taylor becoming the purchaser.

STAGE LINE—Mr. John Reib has purchased the stage line between this city and Lawrenceburg.

ADMINISTRATOR—Mr. Howard Jett, of Cynthia, qualified Wednesday as the administrator of the estate of M. E. Jett, deceased.

ADJUDGED INSANE—Dr. John Sullivan, of Bellepoint, was tried before County Judge Williams' Tuesday on a writ of lunacy and a verdict returned in accordance therewith. He was taken to the asylum at Lexington Wednesday.

TO PAY OLD DEBTS—The Judiciary Committee in the House reported favorably this week a resolution to appropriate $5,000 to pay off the amount due the various contractors in this city for rebuilding the Feeble-Minded Institute after it was destroyed by fire nearly five years ago. It is believed the appropriation will pass.

RETURNED FROM OWEN—Dr. J. L. Massele was returned to the jail in this city for safe keeping Monday night. His second trial in Owen county for the killing of Jesse Honaker was postponed until June.

OUT OF BUSINESS—Messrs. Aubrey & Sargent, the South Side meat merchants, have closed out their stock and retired from business.

A NOTARY—Thursday Mr. Frank Chlen qualified before County Clerk Smith as a notary public for this county.

TELEPHONE REPLACED—A telephone will be placed in the office at the L. & N. Station this afternoon, and hereafter persons having business with the agent will not be compelled to walk down there to transact the same. There was an instrument in the office several years ago but was taken out. The new agent, Mr. Logsdon, feeling the necessity for such a great convenience, has had it replaced.

ROBBERY—Jack Estes was arrested Wednesday night by officers Hyde and James, upon the arrival of the train from Louisville, and lodged in jail on the charge of robbing a man named Kennedy of sixty-one dollars. He was examined before Judge Williams and held to answer for the crime at the next term of the Circuit Court.

DR. EDWARD A. HENSLEY—Among the list of graduates in medicine at the University of Louisville appears the name of Dr. Edward A. Hensley, son of Mr. Ed. Hensley, of the Auditor's Office, in this city. Dr. Hensley graduated with high honors and is a bright and capable young man who, in the zeal of his profession, is destined to become eminently successful in his practice. He will go to New York and take another course of study before selecting a location in which to begin the labors of his profession.

SENTENCED TO THE PEN—Thursday, at Louisville, Judge J. W. Barr, of the United States Circuit Court, sentenced to the penitentiary, Frank James for six years and W. D. Steele for seven years. These men came from Jackson county, where they were arrested on the charge of counterfeiting, and were held in confinement in the jail in this city for four or five months previous to their removal to Louisville. James claims to be a cousin of the noted Frank James, of Missouri.

READY FOR THE EXPOSITION.

Work of the Children in Our Schools to be Sent to Chicago.

Thursday and yesterday Prof. McHenry Rhoads, the Superintendent, had on exhibition at the City School Building samples of the work of the children in the white and colored public schools of this city which had been prepared for exhibition at the Columbian Exposition, at Chicago. They will make a most creditable exhibit of the standing of the public schools of this city and show the proficiency and excellent training the children here are receiving. The work, it is believed, will compare favorably with any sent to Chicago from any other school in the country, and consisted of drawings, maps, diagrams, written exercises and similar evidences of the training of the pupils of the entire schools, from the tiny tots in the kindergarten to the oldest pupils in the highest grades. Many of the drawings were mythological scenes, the inspiration for which was caught in the translation from the Latin. A number of the maps were splendidly executed and had the appearance of the finest lithographic work.

The kindergarten department was represented chiefly in its work by large sheets and the drawings and maps in neatly bound volumes.

As a whole the patrons of the school have reason to be proud of the progress of the children, many of whom evidenced a genius which may yet take a more permanent and useful form in their future career in life.

Rheumatism Quickly Cured.

Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen by the following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill.: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right to-day; and would insist on everyone who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once." 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Wanted.

Ladies and gentlemen suffering with throat and lung difficulties to call at our store for a bottle of Otto's Cure, which we are distributing free of charge, and we can confidently recommend it as a superior remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Consumption, and all diseases of the throat and lungs. Large size 50c. Sold by Chapman & Williams.

Will Probated.

The will of Wyatt Parker, deceased, was admitted to probate Monday. He bequeaths all his real and personal property to his wife, Julia Parker, and after her death to his sons and daughters, to be equally divided among them.

In the third paragraph he names his children as Eliza Jane Pierce, Sally Ann Bledsoe, John M. Parker, Huldy F. Wilson, George W. Parker, Josephine S. Wigginton and Eliza F. Wigginton. Spencer O. Wigginton is named as executor, and the instrument, which is dated January 24, 1893, is witnessed by Milton Wigginton and J. A. Estes.

Unsolicited.

The following testimonial came to us: Kenyon & Thomas Co., Adams, N. Y.: Gentlemen—For the past two years I have suffered terribly with what doctors call eczema. During this time I have consulted several physicians and used a number of well-known remedies but could get no relief, until finally I was urged to give your remedies a trial. I cannot say enough in praise of them. At present I am as well as I ever was in my life and owe my sincere thanks to you for Dr. Hale's Household Ointment and Tea. Any one doubting the sincerity of this testimonial will confer a favor by addressing, very truly yours, N. J. McNabb, Leominster, Mass.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class matter.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Editor and Pub.

FRANKFORT, MARCH 11, 1893.

A DANGEROUS HIGHWAY.

The St. Clair Street Bridge, With Broken Planks, is a Death Trap for Small Children.

The city and county, for their negligence in keeping the St. Clair street bridge in safe condition, will find one of these days a judgment against them for heavy damages. For a month or more there has been a hole in the walkway on the east side which would admit of a full grown man getting through it and falling into the river. For two weeks or more four or five planks in various places knocked off the west walkway have stood like wide open death traps to the numerous little children that pass and re-pass them on their way to and from school. The other day a child had its head and part of its body through the largest hole and stood looking down into the water when a couple of gentlemen, who were almost paralyzed with fright at the spectacle, happened along in time to avert, perhaps, the sad death by drowning of a precious member of a family to whom the entire wealth of the city would not have been a tithe of compensative damages for the loss of the little one.

The bridge is bad enough at best, but as long as it is made use of as the great highway between the two portions of the city, it is humane as well as wisely economical to keep it in safe and good condition.

Pure Malice.

Some people have the ingredient of hate so thoroughly diffused through their corpus that they never fail to take advantage of an opportunity to assert their malice. It is needless to say that all their dirty work is done under cover. An evidence of their handiwork is conspicuously displayed on a new survey at Mr. J. B. Hamilton's carriage works. The vehicle in question was entirely new. The finishing touches were given it only last Saturday morning. Particular pains were paid to the painting, and the work was executed in a masterly and clever style. It was made for Mr. Will. Choate and those who saw it were generous in praise of its workmanship and get-up. Upon entering the room containing the vehicle last Monday morning, however, Mr. Hamilton found that some one, for some unknown cause, had smeared yellow paint over it, completely ruining the work. The guilty person or persons are unknown, neither can the proprietor account for the deed. It is unfortunate that people of this calibre live among respectable people, and still more unfortunate that they practice their nefarious schemes in such a way as to avoid apprehension.

FOR LIFE.

Bert Wing Arrived at the Penitentiary Is Greeted by His Brother, Charley, Also a Prisoner.

Albert Wing, another member of a distinguished family in Kentucky, was on Tuesday placed behind the prison bars in this city for life. He murdered a man in St. Louis a number of years ago and received a sentence to the penitentiary in Jefferson City and was pardoned by the Governor before expiration of his term. Miram Eaves, the young and beautiful daughter of Judge Eaves, of Muhlenburg county, who had cast her lot with him and whom he married after his release from the penitentiary, was the second victim of his passion for murder. The crime was committed in Louisville and on the trial the aged father of the unfortunate wife addressed the jury in behalf of the prisoner, stating that he had conscientious scruples against capital punishment, which it was believed would have been the verdict in the case, and that as a prosecution by him would not restore his daughter, he hoped the jury might find sufficient grounds for a verdict for a life sentence to the penitentiary, which was accordingly rendered within fifteen minutes after the jury retired to the jury room.

Wing's brother Charley is also in this penitentiary serving a sentence for killing the town marshal of Princeton, while in the custody of that officer, who had accepted in good faith Wing's promise to proceed with him to the court room. The brothers greeted each other at the prison gate and by reason of their crimes and family prestige were the center of interest to the visitors at the penitentiary that day.

Nature's Surest Ally.

If nature did not struggle against disease, even in weakly constitutions, swift indeed would be the course of malady to its fatal termination. While nature thus struggles to set us free from her foe, and her efforts with judicious medical help. Experience must be our guide in battles with disease, and that "bump to our feet" indicates Hostetter's stomach bitters as a safe, tried and thorough ally of nature. If the blood be infected with bile, if the bowels are inactive, if the kidneys fail to expel impurities of which they are the natural outlet, a course of the Bitters is the surest reliance of the sufferer, one, moreover, that is sanctioned by professional indorsement and use for nearly half a century. No American or foreign remedy has earned greater distinction as a remedy for and preventive of chronic liver complaint, malaria, constipation, kidney and rheumatic trouble and debility.

REQUIESCAT IN PACE.

The Remains of Mrs. Staten Consigned to Their Last Resting Place.

The funeral of Mrs. Katie Staten took place from her late residence last Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A large number of friends and acquaintances of the family gathered at the home to pay the last tribute of respect to the deceased, and to view for the last time the face of their beloved friend. Copious tears of earnest and heartfelt sorrow caused their way down the cheeks of the gathered mourners, and the scene was an affecting one. Pastors Taylor and Blayne conducted the service in a beautiful and impressive manner, after which the cortege moved the remains to their narrow home.

How Kentucky Girls Kiss.

The Evening Times, of Louisville, this week describes in verse the way the girls in the various towns of Kentucky kiss. The author, whoever he may be, evidently enjoyed such a wide range of experience and he was so thoroughly skilled in the osculatory art as his effusion below would indicate that it would appear to a novice his lips are more puckered now than if he had been eating unripe persimmons. The following is the rhyme:

The Lexington girl, the pride of the State,
In her kissing and smiling is apt
Absorbs it all with a yearning desire,
As big as a ton of hay.

The Frankfort girl bows her stately head,
And she kisses her stylish lip
In a firm, and way, and lets them go
In a graceful little dip.

The Covington girl removes her specs,
And freckles her nose with a smile;
Then she looks out like an open book,
And she kisses her gum mouth.

The Louisville girl says never a word,
And you'd think she was rather tame;
With her graceful and slender hand
But she gets there just the same.

The Newport girl gets a grip on herself,
As she carefully takes off her hat,
And she grabs the prize in a frightened way,
Like a terrified shaking rat.

The Hopkinsville girl, so gentle and sweet,
Lets her lips meet with a tender kiss,
With rapturous warmth, and the youthful soul
Flies out on a sea of bliss.

The Paducah girl, a creature divine,
Whether wife or widow or maid,
Looks into your eyes with starlight eyes,
And she kisses her whole soul in her maid.

The Owensboro girl will at first refuse,
Just to have you insist and plead;
But when she finally gives her consent,
Her kiss, you'll confess, takes the lead.

The Richmond girls close their dreamy eyes,
When invited to osculate;
And let the sensual steal the kiss,
Though they really find it first rate.

The Bowling Green girl neither sighs nor pines,
Nor acts in a manner rude;
But she goes about kindling in a business-like way
That catches the average dude.

Cholera in Pennsylvania.

Swickley, Penn.: We had an epidemic of cholera, as our physicians called it, in this place lately and I made a great hit with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I sold four dozen bottles of it in one week and have since sold nearly a gross. This remedy did the work and was a big advertisement for me. Several persons who had been troubled with diarrhoea for two or three weeks were cured by a few doses of this medicine.

AN HEIRLOOM.

The Pen-written Arithmetic Which Daniel Boone Brought to Kentucky.

"Supt. John W. Graham, of the Adams Express Company, has in his family heirlooms a book which probably has no duplicate" says the Courier-Journal. "It is an arithmetic, 128 pages in length, and contents were written by hand. It was brought this to State on one of Daniel Boone's trips, but has always, so far as is known, been in the Graham family. The Grahams, by the way, are as old a family as can be found in Kentucky, and this arithmetic passed from hand to hand until it was used by several generations. Daniel Boone came to Kentucky in the early 1760's. He went back East and returned with his brother, Squire Boone, and Simon Kenton. Then he made another trip, and the Grahams came to Kentucky with him in 1768, thus being one of the very earliest families. Many years before leaving Virginia, probably about the middle of the eighteenth century, Mr. Graham thinks, the arithmetic was written by some member of the family. It is on very plain paper and has a common paper back, home-made. One branch of the family went to Harrods Port, now Harrodsburg. Another went to Frank's Fort, now Frankfort, and with them the arithmetic went. It is held as a priceless heirloom by the family. The Grahams are scattered in every quarter of the State, and they are very numerous, but they all come from those immigrants who entered the wilderness with Daniel Boone."

Mr. Graham, who formerly lived in this city, is a son of the late C. Gran. Graham, who was for many years proprietor of the livery stable on Ann street, and is a brother of Mr. C. Gran. Graham, clerk in the Adams Express office in this city.

Nervous Prostration.

A large manufacturer, whose affairs were very much embarrassed, and who was overworked and broken down with nervous exhaustion, went to a celebrated specialist. He was told that the only thing needed was to be relieved of care and worry, and have a change of thought. This doctor was more considerate of his patient's health than of his financial circumstances. He ought to have advised him to use Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, the best remedy for nervous prostration, sleeplessness, dizziness, headache, ill effects of spirit, tobacco, coffee, opium, etc. Thousands testify to cures. Books and trial bottles free at J. W. Gayle's.

THE STATE TREASURY.

Receipts Exceeding Expenditures and More Than Half a Million Dollars Still in the State's Coffers.

REMARKS UPON THE OUTLOOK.

The State Treasury, despite the heavy drain upon it, is in a healthy condition. Although all the sheriffs' revenue for this fiscal year has been turned into the treasury for more than a month, and the receipts now are mainly from licenses and a part of the corporations, the total receipts for the last month are yet largely in excess of the total expenditures. The following is the statement of the condition as shown by the books of the Auditor and Treasurer at the end of last month, viz:

Balance January 31.....	$38,907 66
RECEIPTS, FEBRUARY.
General Exp. Fund.....	$175,001 91
School Fund.....	137 14
	175,139 05
EXPENDITURES, FEBRUARY.
General Exp. Fund.....	$130,143 35
School Fund.....	708 16
Sinking Fund.....	247 00
	$131,158 51
Balance in Treas. Mar. 1 '93.	$58,009 10

All the school money now has been paid out to the counties, and no great sums for any special purpose, aside from the usual expenses of the government and the pay of the General Assembly will be necessary to be provided for before the end of June, shortly after which time the taxes from banks and the sheriffs' revenue of 1893 will begin to be paid into the treasury. What the revenue of the next fiscal year may be appears now somewhat problematical, but there is every reason to believe there will be ample, even at the diminished tax rate of 42½ cents for 1893, instead of 47½ cents, the levy for 1892, to meet all ordinary demands upon the treasury. The unofficial statements in the newspapers seem to show that the assessment for 1893 in many of the counties will be decreased. While this, by reason of the exemptions allowed by the Constitution, was not unexpected, it is thought in the Auditor's office that from present indications the receipts from numerous other sources will more than offset any such deficiency in this part of the State's revenue. These sources for the present fiscal year are likely now to run in advance of the expenditures and overcome a deficit which had been looked for on July 1st, and if such expectations should be realized under the present extraordinary drafts of a prolonged session of the Legislature, including the World's Fair and other appropriations, there is abundant reason to claim that for the next year, when the session of the Legislature will be no more than sixty days, the new revenue law, even with the decrease of the exemptions fixed in the Constitution, and the decrease mentioned in the tax rate, can not fail to provide all the revenue required for the maintenance of the State Government.

The Creditors of Camp Buckner.

The creditors of the State, who were refused payment for their goods ordered by authorized agents, and used by the Second Regiment of Kentucky State Guards, at Camp Buckner, in 1890, at Lake Park, in Bellepoint, held a meeting Wednesday night and appointed Messrs. W. B. Dehoney, W. A. Howard and W. L. Pence a committee to confer with the Adjutant General and other State officials looking to a settlement of the unpaid balance of $3,000 and more due them. They are entitled to their money and not a dollar for the World's Fair State Guard encampment should be appropriated until the home merchants have been paid what the State is justly owing to them.

THE COURTS TO SETTLE IT.

By Resolution of the Sinking Fund Commissioners the Mason & Ford Company Will be Sued.

It has been more than a year since Gov. Brown, by innuendo and threat, made it known in the newspapers that he had a sensation about the amount alleged to be due from the Mason & Ford Company that would startle the people and give them cause to wonder if there ever had been any honest State officials until he came into office. At that time, the Sinking Fund Commissioners, willing to co-operate with the Governor in any proper effort to secure to the State her just dues, would readily have voted with him if he believed it necessary to bring suit against the Mason & Ford Company.

The company, it is said, equally as ready to have the matter fairly adjusted, would not have raised a breath of opposition. The nitroglycerine document, however, was kept tightly corked, but the Governor occasionally shook it in the faces of the people and the company as a menace of what he could do if he would. At last, after the bitter disappointment in not riding into the United States Senate on the expected wave of popular applause, he hurled his carefully prepared explosive article into the midst of the Legislature without even notifying any one of the Sinking Fund Commissioners, excepting his appointee Secretary, that he proposed to fling the deadly missile. Well, the rest is modern history. The report ended in the fizzle of a fire cracker but a piece struck a huge bear away down in Hart county and all are familiar with the story of a man who went hunting for a bear and found him and then set up a cry for somebody to come and help him let go of the animal's crushing grasp.

But after all, now come the concluding chapters on the settlement of the Mason & Ford indebtedness where the opening chapters should have been. On Tuesday, Treasurer Hale introduced, at a meeting of the Sinking Fund Commissioners, the following resolution, which received the expressed support of Auditor Norman and Attorney General Hendrick and the silent but implied concurrence of the Governor and Secretary Headley, viz:

Resolved, That the Attorney General and he is hereby directed to bring such suit or suits as are necessary for the Commonwealth of Kentucky against the Mason & Ford Co. and C. R. Mason & Co., present and former lessees of the Kentucky Penitentiary at Frankfort and the Branch Penitentiary at Eddyville, Ky., together with convict labor confined therein, for all sums due the State on contracts and accounts coming within and under the jurisdiction of the Sinking Fund Commissioners as ex-officio directors of said prison.

This puts an end to the real controversy on the subject and merely leaves open to further discussion and attack the personal issues raised by the two Governors. Whether Gov. Brown will reply to Gov. Buckner remains to be seen, but it is stated by the former's friends that his answer is almost ready and may be expected at any time.

The papers in the suit against Mason & Ford Company are in course of preparation and will be filed within a few days in Circuit Clerk Ford's office in time to have the case docketed and ready for trial at the April term of this Circuit Court. It is yet unknown whether the Attorney General intends to sue for the large sum claimed by the Governor to be due or the less amount as shown upon the records of the Auditor's Office and the Sinking Fund Commissioners. It is probable, however, he will fix upon the largest sum which he believes the State has any grounds whatever for claiming, but certainly not upon the rental of the Eddyville prison eighteen months before it was completed and the contract with the company made effective, and which Gov. Brown, among other errors in his statement, has included in the amount of the company's indebtedness.

The lease of the Mason & Ford Company expires next month, and though advertisements have been inserted in numerous leading papers in every part of the country, no bids have been received, and when the present lessees of the penitentiary, who under any other Governor would have continued to lease the prison, walk out of that institution and leave a dead load of nine thousand dollars a month on the tax-payers and more than nine hundred convicts in idleness, it is probable the people will realize how much it costs them to enable Gov. Brown to gratify his malice against the company for taking Lyon county away from him in the last Democratic Convention that nominated State officers.

A Fine Brood Mare Killed.

On Thursday night Mr. Ed. Callery drove down to town and after attending to his business started home, but after getting some distance out on the Versailles pike remembered he had forgotten something, turned around and drove rapidly back, having a fine brood mare attached to his vehicle. Coming down the Arsenal Hill he met Mr. Olympus Crutcher, who was on his way home, in his buggy, and in the darkness the horses attached to the respective vehicles collided. The shaft of young Crutcher's buggy struck Mr. Callery's mare in the breast and penetrated the flesh over a foot in depth, and such an outpouring of the animal's blood resulted that she died even before she could be disengaged from the vehicle.

A Leader.

Since the first introduction, Electric Bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor, and now it is clearly in the lead among pure medicinal tonics and alteratives—containing nothing which permits its use as a beverage or intoxicant. ### Deaths.

CAPLINGER—Mrs. Sarah A. Caplinger died Sunday morning at the residence of her son, Mr. W. S. Caplinger, in Leestown, aged 67 years. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of her son, and the remains were laid to rest in the Cemetery. The deceased was the mother of Mr. Al. Caplinger, of this city.

GREEN—The little twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cal. Green died Saturday, February 25th, at the residence of her parents, near Christiansburg, of consumption, aged eleven months. The remains were laid to rest in the family lot at Christiansburg Church.

McEWAN—On Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Eliza McEwan, wife of Mr. Wm. McEwan, died at her home on the South Side, after a lingering illness of several months. The deceased was in the fifty-seventh year of her age, a loving and faithful wife and mother, and a devoted friend whose kindly sympathy and interest often beguiled others of their heavy cares and sorrows. She was a sincere and consistent member of the Methodist Church, in which she was a zealous worker in its cause. Her husband and four children—Mrs. Andrew Cain, of Versailles, Mrs. L. F. Johnson, Mr. Hunt McEwan, of this city, and Mr. Ben McEwan, of Kansas City—are left to mourn her death. The funeral took place Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from the family residence, Rev. H. G. Henderson conducting the services, and the remains were laid at rest in the cemetery of this city.

GRAVITT—Miss Mary Gravitt, daughter of Mr. Frank Gravitt, died at her parents' home near the Forks of Elkhorn Monday night.

WINSTON—In Weatherford, Texas, on the 27th of February, 1893, Mamie Louisa, daughter of John McC. and Lena Winston.

The Methodist Meeting.

The preaching of Dr. Bolling has met with great favor among the church-going people of this city. There is a general interest awakened in the meeting, and the two daily services are largely attended, extra chairs being used to accommodate the night congregations.

Dr. Bolling is a plain and forcible speaker and masters his audience with perfect ease. At times his flights of eloquence are full of beauty and power.

There have been 16 additions to the membership of the church up to the time of our going to press.

Preaching to-day at 3 and 7:30 p. m. and to-morrow at the usual hours.

Recovered—sound health for every consumptive who hasn't delayed too long. There's a positive cure with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Just as it cures the worst of the many forms of scrofula, so it cures, and just as certainly, the scrofulous affection of the lungs that's called "consumption" through the blood. But, even with this remedy, it won't do to wait. It can make diseased ones healthy when nothing else will. As a blood-cleanser, strength-restorer, and flesh-builder, there's nothing like it known to medical science. For Scrofula in all its forms, Bronchitis, Throat, and Lung affections, Weak Lungs, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and every disease that can be reached through the blood, it's the only remedy so unfailing that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back. On these terms, it's an insult to your intelligence to have something else offered as being "just as good."

Rec'd. 4:17.
